

Armando Bermúdez, “El Torito”, as his Flamenco audience knows him, has been playing flamenco guitar in Atlanta and the Southeastern United States for over a decade. He creates music that reflects the exciting sounds of Nuevo Flamenco and his Spanish guitar will take you on a journey around the world in song with sultry ballads, salsa rhythms, rumba and pure flamenco. Armando has studied with renowned artists from Spain such as Jose Galves, David Leiva and Javier Heredia; and in the United States with Marija Temo and Arturo Martinez.

Join El Torito at one of his live performances in Atlanta where the audience feels compelled to dance and clap along to his music.
